

August 30, 2018

The schedules for golf, track & field, baseball, and softball for the Spring of 2019 will be finalized in mid to late March of 2019. These sports are dependent on weather and the scheduling of all events related to these sports takes place during the month of March as this allows golf courses, schools, etc. to know when their fields, courses, and tracks will be available for use.